OPENING KICK

VIRGINIA TRAVELS TO WAKE FOREST

- UVA returns to the road and will travel to Winston-Salem to face the Wake Forest Demon Deacons on Saturday.
- After playing every single season from 1980-2003, UVA and Wake Forest will only be meeting for the fifth time in the past 17 seasons. Saturday's game is the first meeting in the series since 2016 and just the second at Truist Field since 2008.

VIRGINIA VS. WAKE FOREST

- Virginia owns a 34-15 all-time record over Wake Forest in a series that began in 1889 with a 46-4 Cavalier win in a game played in Richmond.
- UVA is 15-3 all-time at Truist Field, dating back to 1968.
- Virginia had a 17-game winning streak from 1984-2000, which is the third-longest winning streak in ACC history against a league foe.
- Since the series was tied at seven wins apiece in 1970, Virginia has won 27 of the last 35 meetings.
- Virginia has won 10 of the last 12 games they have played against Wake Forest at Truist Field.

FIVE TOP STORYLINES

- Virginia's 2020 schedule features all four ACC Schools from North Carolina on it. The last time UVA played Duke, North Carolina, NC State and Wake Forest in the same season was 2012. It is also only the third time it happened over the past 17 seasons, which also included the 2007 season.
- Under Bronco Mendenhall, UVA's defense has held opponents under 100 yards passing six times. The first time was UVA's last trip to Truist Field in 2016 when the Cavaliers held Wake Forest to 83 passing yards.
- WR Billy Kemp IV has 27 receptions this season. Kemp's 27 receptions are the most by a Cavalier through the first three games of the year in program history, besting Olamide Zaccheaus' 26 to start off 2017.
- Kemp is No. 1 in the ACC and No. 3 in the nation with 9.0 receptions per game. With 10 receptions in each of the last two games, he is just the fifth different Cavalier to notch multiple 10+ reception games in the same season. He joins Hasise Dubois (2019), Billy McMullen (2001 & 2002), Alvin Pearman (2003) and Olamide Zaccheaus (2018).
- WR Lavel Davis Jr. leads the nation's freshmen wide receivers in yards per reception with 23.33 per catch.

ILB Zane Zandier has 203 career tackles, which ranks No. 21 in the nation among active players.

VIRGINIA ATHLETICS NEW BRAND IDENTITY

- The University of Virginia athletics department introduced this year its new brand identity. The refreshed designs provide updates on a brand rich in history and tradition. The work was developed by Nike's Global Identity Group (GIG) and includes updates to the iconic V-Sabre mark, two new secondary marks, a revised color scheme and the introduction of new typography, numerals and patterns.
- Nike's GIG team works with a select number of its side-line partners each year to update the athletics department's brand identity based on the goals provided by the institution. The launch of the new Virginia Athletics brand identity is the culmination of an 18-month collaborative process with Nike that began with discovery sessions with UVA coaches, student-athletes and administrators.

UNIQUELY UVA

The University of Virginia is an institution rich with history and tradition. Here is some of the terminology that contributes to UVA's culture.

Grounds: The term used by students, faculty and alumni to refer to the University dating as far back as Thomas Jefferson. "Campus" is never used.

First Year, Second Year, Third Year, Fourth Year: Instead of freshman, sophomore, junior, senior. Why you may ask? To be a "senior" implies that a person has reached the final phase of learning, a feat that Thomas Jefferson believed to be impossible, arguing instead that education is a life-long process.

Commonwealth: Virginia is one of four constituent states of the United States of America that officially uses the name "Commonwealth" instead of the word state in all references. The other three commonwealths are Kentucky, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania.

UNIVERSITY NICKNAMES

Virginia's athletics teams have been accompanied by a somewhat confusing array of nicknames. The most prominent and widely accepted of these monikers are "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos."

Although the terms "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are used almost interchangeably to refer to University teams and players, "Cavaliers" is more often used by the media, while "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are frequently used by Virginia students and fans.

Legend has it that Washington & Lee baseball fans dubbed the Virginia players "Wahoos" during the fiercely contested rivalry that existed between the two in-state schools in the 1890s. By 1940, "Wahoos" was in general use around Grounds to denote University students or events relating to them. The abbreviated "Hoos" sprang up later in student newspapers and has gained growing popularity in recent years.

THE CAVALIER MASCOT

The costumed Cavalier with a large character head debuted during Virginia's 1984 football season and has remained the official mascot of the University.

The first documented Cavalier on horseback was Francis Bell, a Virginia student from Dublin, Va., in 1947. Bell rode onto the field dressed as Cavaliers for Virginia's home football game with Harvard on the afternoon of October 11.

The Cavalier on horseback returned as the University's mascot in 1963. The UVA Polo Club provided both the horse and rider. However, the mounted Cavalier and his horse parted company in 1974 with the inception of AstroTurf at Scott Stadium.

The mounted Cavalier made its return in the Florida Citrus Bowl at the end of the 1989 football season. Due to its instant popularity, the Cavalier on horseback returned the following season on a regular basis and continues to lead the Virginia football team onto the field at the beginning of all home games.

UNIVERSITY COLORS

Orange and blue were adopted as the University of Virginia's official athletic colors at a mass student meeting in 1888. UVA athletic teams had previously worn silver gray and cardinal red, but those colors did not stand out on muddy football fields, prompting a student movement to change them.

One of the students attending the mass meeting was Allen Potts, a star athlete who played on Virginia's first football team in 1888. Potts showed up at the meeting wearing a navy blue-and-orange scarf that he had acquired during a summer boating expedition at Oxford University. Orange and blue were chosen as the official athletic colors after one of Potts' fellow students pulled the scarf off Potts' neck and, waving it to the crowd, yelled, "How will this do?" UVA later served as the inspiration for schools like Auburn and Florida when they selected school colors.

WAH-HOO-WAH

The origin of "Wah-hoo-wah" is uncertain. The cheer was used to root on Virginia teams as early as 1890 and may have been borrowed from Dartmouth College, whose athletics teams were once known as the Indians.

Legend attributes the yell to Natalie Floyd Otey, who sang the ballad "Where'er You Are, There Shall My Love Be" at Charlottesville's Levy Opera House in 1893. The predominantly student audience noticed that Otey warbled the first three words of the song between each of the stanzas and decided to join in the refrain. By evening's end, goes the legend, the crowd had corrupted "Where'er You Are" into "Wah-hoo-wah."

The Levy Opera House stands at the corner of High Street and Park Street and has since been renovated into an office building.

CLOSE AFFAIRS THE NORM OF LATE

- Six of the last seven games between Wake Forest and Virginia each have been decided by a touchdown or less.
- The last three wins by UVA were by a combined eight points, including a one-point thriller in 2007 at Scott Stadium.
- After UVA won 20-of-21 meetings with Wake Forest (1984-2007), the Demon Deacons have won three straight, tying their previous longest winning streak in the series (1959-60-61).

BACK-TO-BACK SERIES TRIPS TO WINSTON-SALEM

- Virginia is playing this series in Winston-Salem in back-to-back meetings for the fourth time in series history with WFU. UVA also did this in 1957 & 1959, 1978 & 1980 and most recently in 1985 & 1986.
- This is nothing new to the series as UVA hosted Wake Forest in Charlottesville multiple times before returning the series to Winston-Salem. UVA has been the home team for such back-to-back meetings (and sometimes back-to-back-to-back) as in 1911, 1955 & 1956, 1962, 1964 & 1966, 1981 & 1982 and most recently in 2003 & 2007.
- The only sweeps happened in 1985 & 1986 at Wake Forest, as well as 2003 & 2007 in Charlottesville. UVA won all four games and UVA alum Al Groh was involved in all four games. Groh was the Wake Forest head coach in 1985 & 1986 that lost the games in Winston-Salem and was the UVA head coach in 2003 & 2007 the Cavaliers won at Scott Stadium.

UVA PILES UP OFFENSE VS. DEACS

- The Cavaliers have put on some impressive offensive performances against Wake Forest in the last 30 years since the early 1980s.
- The Cavaliers have scored 30 or more points in 13 of the last 21 meetings.
- Two of UVA's top-six total offense figures have come vs. the Demon Deacons.
- The most impressive output was a 643-yard performance (323 yards rushing, 320 yards passing) in 1982.
- The 643 yards of offense is tied for the fourth-highest total in school history and marks the only game in school history where the Cavaliers gained 300 yards both rushing and passing.

CAVALIER RUSHERS SHINE VS. WAKE

- In 18 of the last 28 games against Wake Forest, dating back to 1980, Virginia has had at least one player rush for 100 yards.
- There have been 26 Cavaliers since 1954 who have rushed for at least 100 yards against Wake Forest, the most by UVA against any ACC team.

SCORING EARLY, FIRST IMPORTANT

- One of the keys to either team winning this game has been the ability to score early and score first.
- Since 1982 (26 games), the winning team has scored first 19 times (Virginia 16 wins, Wake Forest three).
- UVA has scored on its first possession 10 times since 1987 and won the first nine times until the 2016 meeting, falling 27-20 (The Cavaliers scored on their first drive on six consecutive occasions between 1987-92).
- The Demon Deacons scored on their first possession and ended UVA's 17-game series winning streak in 2001.

UVA-WAKE CONNECTIONS

- UVA alum Wayne Lineburg is Wake Forest's special teams coordinator and tight ends coach. A 1996 UVA graduate of the University of Virginia, Lineburg played quarterback and was part of three bowl teams and a member of UVA's 1995 ACC championship team.
- Lineburg served as an assistant coach on Al Groh's 2007, 2008 and 2009 coaching staffs at UVA. He worked with the wide receivers in 2007 and 2008 and then the running backs in 2009.
- Wake Forest head coach Dave Clawson spent four seasons as the head coach at Richmond, but never faced Virginia.
- Other Wake Forest assistants that coached at schools in the Commonwealth of Virginia are: Associate head coach/wide receivers coach Kevin Higgins (Richmond, 1985-87); offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach Warren Ruggiero (William & Mary, 1999).
- Below is a list of previous school connections between players on UVA's roster and those on Wake's roster:

Rob Snyder		Peyton Woulard
Justin Duenkel	Flint Hill School (Va.)	Justice Ellison

LAST MEETING • 2016

Wake Forest 27, Virginia 20
Nov. 5, 2016 • Winston-Salem, N.C.

Last Meeting

Running back Taquan Mizzell accounted for 159 total yards and a touchdown as Virginia fell to Wake Forest, 27-20, the last time these two teams met.

Wake Forest trailed 20-17 early in the fourth quarter, and the Cavaliers had opportunities to build on the advantage. But as has often been the case in the Deacons' wins under coach Dave Clawson, the team's defense made momentum-shifting plays.

On consecutive fourth quarter drives, Virginia's Kurt Benkert threw interceptions. Wake Forest capitalized on them both.

Mike Weaver's 36-yard field goal following the first of those picks made it 20-all, and safety Jessie Bates returned the second 39 yards for the go-ahead touchdown with 6:47 remaining.

KEMP BECOMING A WORKHORSE FOR THE UVA OFFENSE

- WR Billy Kemp IV has become a workhorse for the Virginia offense. He currently ranks No. 1 in the ACC and No. 3 in the nation with 9.0 receptions per game. He tallied a career-high 10 catches at No. 1 Clemson and matched it again last time out against NC State. His 96 receiving yards against the Tigers was also a career high.
- Kemp ranks No. 4 in the ACC and No. 27 nationally with 82.7 receiving yards per game.
- Over his last eight games, dating back to Nov. 9, 2019 vs. Georgia Tech, Kemp has caught 48 passes (6.0 rpg) for 441 yards (55.1 ypg) and two touchdowns (vs. VT & NC State).

DELANEY BREAKS UVA'S CONSECUTIVE FIELD GOALS MADE RECORD

- Senior Brian Delaney has made 15-straight field goals, breaking the UVA record owned by Jake McInerney. In 1989, McInerney made 14 in a row.
- Delaney's current streak ranks No. 3 in the nation among active streaks. He started the 2020 season with the longest streak, but has only had two attempts thus far. Hunter Duplessis from UTSA, who is No. 1 in the nation currently, was a recruit to UTSA by current UVA special teams coordinator Ricky Brumfield when he was with the Roadrunners. Before Brumfield came to UVA in 2018, Duplessis did kickoffs for him at UTSA.
- Delaney's streak started on Oct. 11, 2019 at Miami when he made three field goals in a row after his first attempt of the game was blocked.
- The ACC record is 34, set by Wake Forest's Nick Sciba last season, breaking the previous record of 27 held by NC State's Marc Primanti.

STONE'S CAREER DAY AGAINST NC STATE

- Fourth-year QB Lindell Stone had a career day against NC State when he was called into the game in the second quarter after starting QB Brennan Armstrong left with an injury.
- It was just the fifth appearance of Stone's career and first that didn't come in the fourth quarter. Entering the game his only pass of 2020 had gone for -7 yards and his career QB efficiency rating was 5.03.
- Stone tossed his first career passing touchdown in the closing seconds of the second quarter when he found Billy Kemp IV for the two-yard score. On the scoring drive Stone was 6-of-9 for 75 yards and the touchdown pass.
- Stone finished with career highs in completions (30), attempts (53), yards (240) and touchdowns (3).
- Stone marked the 17th time since 2000 a Cavalier quarterback has completed 30+ passes in a game. Six of those occurrences have happened since 2017.

BLOUNT AND ZANDIER ARE A TACKLING DUO

- Only 22 active FBS players have 200+ career tackles and UVA has two of them. Both FS Joey Blount (210) and ILB Zane Zandier (203) are part of the 22. Blount and Zandier are the active only Power-5 teammates with 200+ career tackles.
- Western Kentucky's Devon Key (291) and DeAngelo Malone (214) are the only other FBS teammates with 200+ career tackles.

NELSON CLIMBING THE ACTIVE CAREER LIST FOR INTS

- SS Brenton Nelson has eight career interceptions. He is tied for No. 6 among active FBS players for most career interceptions.
- FS Joey Blount (6) and CB De'Vante Cross (4), along with Nelson (8), make Virginia one of three schools with at least three players with 4+ career interceptions. Cincinnati has seven with 4+, while LSU, like UVA, has three.
- CB Nick Grant has three interceptions, also joining the Top 100 of career interceptions among active players.

DO YOU BELIEVE IN DEJA VU?

- From 2015-17 former Cavaliers ILB Micah Kiser and FS Quin Blanding finished No. 1 and No. 2 in the nation in tackles for three years in a row. After two years of no Cavaliers in the Top 5 in the ACC in tackles, two have returned to the top three spots this week.
- ILB Nick Jackson is No. 1 in the ACC with 10.3 tackles a game, while ILB Zane Zandier comes in at No. 3 in the ACC with 9.7 tackles per game. Jackson has tallied a career-high 12 tackles in each of the first two games this season.
- Jackson is No. 13 in the nation, while Zandier is No. 22 in the nation.

LONG UVA SCORING DRIVES

- Three games into the season, UVA already has scoring drives of 97 yards (vs. NC State) and 94 yards (vs. Duke). Both drives resulted in touchdowns and are longer than any drive the Cavaliers had in 2017, 2018 and 2019.
- The last time UVA had multiple drives of 90+ yards was in 2016 when UVA set a program record with a 99-yard drive vs. Central Michigan and also had a 90-yard drive against UConn.

LAVEL DAVIS JR. STRETCHES THE FIELD

- WR Lavel Davis Jr. is No. 8 in the nation in yards per reception (23.33), which ranks No. 1 in the nation among freshmen wide receivers. The only freshman in the nation with a better mark is running back Deuce Vaughn from Kansas State.
- Five of Davis Jr.'s nine receptions this season have gone for 20+ yards and three have gone for 30+ yards. All nine of his receptions have gone for a first down or a touchdown.
- Dating back to 2000, Davis Jr.'s 23.33 yards per reception mark through UVA's first three games is the second highest in program history of players with at least five receptions. Only Andre Levrone as a senior in 2017 had a better yards per catch average (25.9).
- No UVA receiver since 2000 had as many catches as Davis Jr. (9) through three games with a better yards per catch average.

VIRGINIA PASSING GAME THROUGH THREE GAMES

- UVA has passed for 855 yards and eight touchdowns through the first three games of the season. Dating back to 2000, only the 2017 UVA team passed for more yards through the first three games (976), which came on the back mostly of Kurt Benkert's single-game record 455 yards against UConn.
- UVA's eight touchdown passes are the most by a Cavalier through three games dating back to 2000.

POLJAN BRINGING THE THE TIGHT END BACK TO UVA

- TE Tony Poljan, a grad transfer from Central Michigan, has 14 receptions for 100 yards and two touchdowns this season.
- Since 2000, only Virginia tight ends Tom Santi (15) in 2006 and Jake McGee (14) in 2013 had as many receptions as Poljan has had through the first three games. Poljan's two touchdowns is more than Santi and McGee had combined in those seasons (1) through three games.
- Since 2001, UVA tight ends have accumulated 795 receptions, 8,257 receiving yards and 72 touchdowns, by far the best in the ACC over that span.
- From that list of tight ends, 10 have enjoyed careers in the NFL with seven lasting 3+ years.

THE MENDENHALL ERA: HOLDING OPPONENTS TO CERTAIN THRESHOLDS

- Virginia, under Bronco Mendenhall, has held opponents under 400 yards of total offense 36 times since the start of the 2016 season (55 games). UVA is 21-15 under Mendenhall in those games.
- Since the start of the 2018 season, UVA has held 23 opponents (30 games) under 400 yards of total offense. UVA is 16-7 under Mendenhall in those games.
- The 2019 team faced injuries in the secondary like no other position group during Mendenhall's tenure and still managed to do this 10 times. By the end of the season, or immediately after its conclusion, 11 members of the secondary in 2019 were out due to injury, or required a post-season surgery (played with ailment).
- Below are some year-by-year progressions during the Mendenhall era:

2018	11	8-3
2019	10	7-3
2020	2	1-1
TOTAL	36	21-15

- Virginia has held 14 opponents under 100 yards rushing in a game during the Bronco Mendenhall era. UVA's record is 13-1 under Mendenhall in those games with the lone loss coming in 2019 at Miami.

JANA JOINS THE 100/1,000 CLUB AT VIRGINIA

- WR Terrell Jana notched nine receptions against NC State on Oct. 10 to become the 23rd Cavalier in program history to reach 100 career receptions and 1,000 receiving yards. Jana became the 43rd player in program history to reach 1,000 career receiving yards in the 2019 Orange Bowl against Florida.
- Eight of the 23 Cavaliers to join the 100/1,000 club had current UVA wide receiver coach Marques Hagans as a coach.

THE HAGANS FACTOR

- With WR Terrell Jana moving into No. 25 all-time at UVA in receiving yards, he becomes the ninth Cavalier in the Top 25 to be coached by current UVA receivers coach and alum Marques Hagans.
- Hagans has coached: No. 2 Olamide Zaccheaus, No. 5 Kris Burd, No. 8 Hasise Dubois, No. 11 Darius Jennings, No. 12 Tim Smith, No. 17 Joe Reed, No. 18 Doni Dowling, No. 20 Canaan Severin and No. 25 Jana. Hagans worked with Burd while as an offensive GA in 2011.
- In all, 11 of the 42 Cavaliers that have reached the 1,000-yard receiving plateau in their career have been coached by Hagans.
- Jana needs 27 more receiving yards to pass Tim Finklelestone, the father of current UVA long snapper on punts, Tucker, for No. 24 on the all-time UVA receiving yards list.

The last Cavalier to reach 1,000-career rushing yards was former QB Bryce Perkins last season when he became the 44th player in program history to reach the milestone. He is only the third UVA quarterback to reach the milestone and the first since Shawn Moore in 1990.

MITCHELL HONORS HAGANS WITH JERSEY PICK

- WR Hayden Mitchell, who wore No. 83 the last two years, picked No. 18 when it was his time to choose this season. He did so to honor his position coach, Marques Hagans, who wore the number as a QB/WR at UVA (2002-05).
- Mitchell is a former walk-on. The Richmond, Va., native was awarded a scholarship this past August after practice.

REINKENSMEYER ACCOMPLISHES RARE OFFENSIVE LINE FEAT

- After starting the season opener against Duke at left guard, Virginia fifth-year offensive lineman Dillon Reinkensmeyer has started a game at all five offensive line positions. He is now the only FBS player to accomplish this feat in research dating back to the start of the 2010 season.
- Reinkensmeyer owns 21 starts at center, 12 starts at right tackle, two starts at right guard, two starts at left tackle and two start at left guard.
- Reinkensmeyer's 39 career starts are top on the UVA offense.
- Research has found a number of players who started at center, and at guard and a tackle position over their careers prior to 2010, but no confirmations of all five.

LAVEL DAVIS JR. SHINES IN DEBUT

- WR Lavel Davis Jr. led UVA with 101 receiving yards and two touchdowns on four receptions in his collegiate debut against Duke. The 101 receiving yards by the Dorchester, S.C., native is the first time a Cavalier has recorded 100+ receiving yards in his collegiate debut.
- He scored touchdowns on scoring strikes of 18 and 26 yards in the fourth quarter. His first, an 18-yard pass from Brennan Armstrong, gave UVA the lead (24-20) for good with 12:43 left to play against Duke. He was named ACC receiver and rookie of the week for his efforts.
- To compare Davis to former Cavaliers, below is UVA's career Top 10 in receiving yards and what they did in their collegiate debut:

HIGHLIGHTS FROM THE DUKE WIN

- With the help of the Havoc Hoos, Virginia forced seven Duke turnovers on Sept. 26. UVA has forced 25 Duke turnovers during its current six-game winning streak over the Blue Devils.
- UVA's seven forced turnovers and five interceptions are both single-game highs for a team in FBS this season.
- In 131 seasons of Virginia football, the Cavaliers have notched a program record five interceptions 10 times in a game. Two of those times have come in the Bronco Mendenhall era at UVA and both times against Duke (2016 and 2020).
- At +4 in the turnover margin, UVA is No. 1 in the nation in that category.
- UVA opened back-to-back seasons with ACC wins for the first time in program history after winning at Pitt to open 2019.
- Zane Zandier notched a career-high 15 tackles, which is a single-game best in the ACC this season. He was named ACC Linebacker of the Week for his efforts.
- TB Wayne Taulapapa rushed 16 times for a career-high 95 yards against Duke. His previous high was 77 against Duke last year.

THE THOMPSON TRIFECTA

- QB Keytaon Thompson caught a three-yard pass at No. 1 Clemson for his first career receiving touchdown. It was just Thompson's second career reception with his first coming last season when he was at Mississippi State.
- In his career, Thompson has now passed for, rushed for and received for a touchdown. He previously had eight passing touchdowns and 10 rushing touchdowns at Mississippi State.

UVA PASSING GAME UNDER BRONCO MENDENHALL

- Five of the top eight single-game passing contests from a quarterback standpoint have happened during the head coach Bronco Mendenhall and offensive coordinator Robert Anae's tenure at UVA (2016-pres.).
- Kurt Benkert, the starting quarterback in 2016 and 2017 owns the No. 1 (455, vs. UConn, 2017), No. 2 (421, vs. Central Michigan, 2016) and No. 6 (384, at Miami, 2017) spots. Bryce Perkins, the starting quarterback in 2018 and 2019 has the No. 7 spot (379, vs. Ohio, 2018) and No. 8 spot (378, at UNC, 2019).
- Virginia also amassed 5,445 yards of total offense in 2019, marking the sixth time in program history a Cavalier team recorded over 5,000 yards in a single season. The 2019 season marked the second-best output in program history (1990, 5,516) and only the second time a Cavalier team tallied 5,000+ yards of total offense in back-to-back seasons after notching 5,033 total yards in 2018.
- Only ten times in program history has a UVA quarterback thrown for 20+ touchdowns in a season and five of those times have happened in the past five seasons: 2015 (Matt Johns, 20); 2016 (Kurt Benkert, 21); 2017 (Kurt Benkert, 25); 2018 (Bryce Perkins, 25); 2019 (Bryce Perkins, 22).

- Walker will have two years of eligibility starting in 2021 after serving a NCAA-mandatory season of residency.
- Amos, Atariwa and Simpson are all currently roommates after facing each other previously in CAA play. Caracciolo was on the same freshman class as Amos and Atariwa at JMU.
- Amos and Simpson are both former first-team FCS All-Americans.
- Poljan opened the 2018 season as the starting QB at Central Michigan before moving to tight end later that year. He is currently on the Senior Bowl Watch List.

- Taulapapa is a member of the 2016 recruiting class, but did not enroll until 2018 after serving a two-year LDS mission to Managua, Nicaragua.
- The native of Laie, Hawaii attended Punahou High School in Honolulu. Taulapapa's roundtrip to high school each day was an average of 3.5 hours (1:45 one way) on the road.

NASH GRIFFIN RETURNS DEFERS JOB AT WELLS FARGO TO COME BACK AND PUNT

- To date, 90 Cavaliers have earned numbers.
- With six numbers retired (12, 24, 35, 48, 73, 97), four numbers remain to be earned (60, 61, 68, 78).

"BREAKING THE ROCK"

"Breaking the Rock," has also become a tradition in UVA football, started in 2018 by Shawn Griswold, the team's director of football development and performance. It represents how you move a mountain, one rock at a time. The hardest worker during summer workouts is awarded the honor of swinging the sledgehammer and breaking the designated rock to close the summer phase. After a Cavalier win, the "unofficial player of the game" breaks the rock for that week. Below is the collection of Cavaliers to Break the Rock since the tradition began. Griswold started the tradition while at Tulsa and also included it at Pitt and Arizona State.

UNIQUELY VIRGINIA FOOTBALL

GUIDING PRINCIPLES

• The Virginia football program under Bronco Mendenhall has 14 guiding principles. They can be found on the walls of the McCue Center and outlining the fences of the practice facility. They are a constant reminder to the foundation of the program. Each one is a vehicle for the Virginia football program to develop people.

• Bronco Mendenhall Said It: “I would love to win a national championship. I’d love to develop a great program here. But what I would really love is for every kid in my program to have an amazing life.”

- Family. First, Last, Always
- Earned Not Given
- Will Before Skill
- And ...
- 400 Percent
- The Power of Choice
- Two Ways
- Protect our Cart
- Less Drama, More Work
- Hard Things Together
- Everybody is Somebody
- It Pays to be a Winner
- Champions Do Extra
- Make it a Masterpiece

TASK UNIT LEADERS

• The Cavaliers have 10 task-unit leaders and each has an assistant. Working together, they determine the order in which players select their jersey numbers, choose the movie that’s shown the night before a game (not taking place this season), pick the color combination of the uniform UVA will wear in a given game, recognize teammates for their effort in practice, and decide which players make up the four special-teams units: kickoff, kickoff return, punt and punt return.

• Bronco Mendenhall Said It: “It’s their program. The idea simply is, I like the idea of delegating and providing leadership opportunities as much as possible. I try to get as much off it [head coach’s plate] as possible, so the only thing that I have remaining to do is competitive work. Then that allows me to help our team at the highest level with the time that I have.”

• OLB Charles Snowden Said It: “I know he’s [Mendenhall] big on leadership development, so I think he just gives us opportunities to lead within football. We definitely see our peers in a different light than the coaches do. The coaches kind of see football only. We know who’s coming back and getting in extra work, we know how guys carry themselves, we know how invested they are.”

EARN YOUR JERSEY NUMBER

• Head coach Bronco Mendenhall introduced what he sees as the bedrock of his “earned not given” mantra when he arrived in Charlottesville in 2016. There are no double numbers and once a number is earned, that student-athlete has it for the season. The majority of numbers are picked over the course of the selection ceremonies during the final three weekends of fall camp. Once the season ends, all players return to the status of no number for winter conditioning, spring ball and summer workouts.

• To be considered for number selection, players have to meet certain physical benchmarks – weight room numbers, conditioning times, etc. – but it’s also about dedication to the program, overall effort in practice and having the right disposition in the locker room.

• Bronco Mendenhall doesn’t choose the order. The task unit leaders do.

• Bronco Mendenhall Said It: “The task unit leaders, they’re the ones who are with their teammates every day in the locker room. They’re with them in class. They’re with them in their apartments. They see a lot more than I see. Our players have embraced it, and it matters to them to be endorsed by their peers to be on our team.”

• Alum Jordan Mack Said It: “Part of our program is earned not given. They know what to expect coming in, and they know nothing is going to be given. To earn a number, gear, anything with a Virginia sabre on it, you’re going to have to earn it through your hard work.”

STATE CHANGERS

- White ► Grey ► Orange ► Navy ► Black
- Workout gear color is immediate feedback where our student-athletes stand in their training in order to drive positive change.
- Everything in performance is tracked from the moment they step on Grounds to show their gains. All new players begin their UVA careers wearing white.
- Black workout gear is the pinnacle in the UVA strength & conditioning. Two current Cavaliers have reached that pinnacle: DE Richard Burney and CB Nick Grant.

THURSDAY’S HEROES

• The Thursday’s Heroes program is coordinated by the University of Virginia football team. Originally at BYU, Thursday’s Heroes transitioned to UVA when Bronco Mendenhall became Head Coach in 2016. Since then, the program has continued to grow, warming the hearts of players, coaches, fans, and of course, the Heroes. Each Thursday during the Fall and Spring season (this is not happening this year), an individual who is undergoing a difficult circumstance (medical, physical, cognitive, etc.) and their family is invited to tour the football facilities, watch practice, meet the coaches/team, and receive special gifts unique to each Hero. Different players take turns showering the Hero with gifts, including UVA gear, an official game jersey, Beats by Dre, a bicycle, school supplies, Halloween costumes, and special video messages from favorite celebrities (Peyton Manning, Kenny Chesney, Damian Lillard, Chris Long and Hugh Jackman to name a few have taken part). The goal of the program is simple: to put a smile on the Hero’s face and to welcome them to the Virginia Football family.

• TB Wayne Taulapapa Said It: “Everybody is Somebody ... Every day we look up to them and the fight they are in. We want them to know they are with us and we are with them.”

UNIQUELY VIRGINIA FOOTBALL

MAD HATTERS (PUT ON THE HATS)

- The “Mad Hatters” is the name of the Virginia Football Scout Team. It drew inspiration from the character frozen in time in “Alice in Wonderland,” but the name has as much to do with the evolution of pennies scout team players once draped over their shoulder pads to brightly colored pieces of fabric, which stretch over their helmets. Hence, “Put on the hats.”
- Each Thursday after practice the “Mad Hatter of the Week” is announced by a task unit leader.
- Bronco Mendenhall Said It: “The way I frame it to our team is without going through that process, I think there is a fundamental step missed in their development. Most recruits and most young people want to come in and play their first year. Most of us, right, it’s kind of about us. When you’re in that role, it’s really about serving and helping your team.”

UVA GROUNDKEEPERS

- Virginia’s football program wants to be a catalyst for change in the community, helping to turn the pain of the Charlottesville riots of Aug. 12, 2017 into a celebration of life, love and unity. During the summer of 2020, a player-led initiative was born in the form of the Groundskeepers in order to “Take Back our Grounds” from the white nationalists that descended upon Charlottesville in 2017.
- To be part of the Groundskeepers, participants take part in their own march, which starts downtown at Heather Heyer Way — the street named in honor of the woman who lost her life during the Aug. 12 demonstrations — before heading to the Enslaved Workers Memorial and the Rotunda.
- Bronco Mendenhall Said It: “We chose to take this march in direct opposition and the exact opposite direction of the events that happened in the death of Heather Heyer. We’re standing against hate, inequality, anything that doesn’t reflect well on the state of mankind, especially at the University of Virginia.
- OLB Charles Snowden Said It: We are committed to making a change in our community. We are committed to fighting for what’s right. We are committed to a better future. We are the Groundskeepers. Just thinking about what transpired those two days and what those two days signify and stand for — There were protests led in the name of hatred, racism, oppression and that’s harmful. That’s hurtful to a lot of people and that’s not what the city of Charlottesville stands for. That’s not what the University of Virginia stands for. The Groundskeepers here at UVA, we just want to show that’s not who we are and not what we stand for. So we’re just trying to take back the power of those days and show that we stand for love, unity, respect, uplifting one another, and just doing what’s right.”
- One of UVA’s four flags they run onto the field with each game is a flag that represents the Groundskeeper, which serves as constant reminder to the community of the importance of being unified in love rather than hate.

THE SHIELD

- The shield is an important part of the Virginia football program. On the shield, which was modeled after shields used in the movie 300, has three numbers: +1, 24, +5. They represent a formula that Bronco Mendenhall and his staff developed after years of data study and analytics that will lead to probable wins. Each game UVA’s goal is to be at least +1 in turnover margin, score at least 24 points while holding opponents under 24 points and being at least +5 in field position. Accomplishing each of those goals in a game creates a winning scenario.
- Virginia’s shield (pictured) is always represented in the UVA locker room.
- The shield also has the UVA guiding principles painted around the shield.

ARMSTRONG IS NAMED QB1

- QB Brennan Armstrong was named the starting quarterback by Bronco Mendenhall on Aug. 27. He is the third opening-day starting quarterback under Bronco Mendenhall, joining Kurt Benkert (2016-17) and Bryce Perkins (2018-19).
- Armstrong is one of UVA's four team captains as voted upon by his peers. He is the only non-senior, joining DE Richard Burney, WR Terrell Jana and OLB Charles Snowden.
- Armstrong is the first left-handed starting QB at UVA since Jameel Sewell (2006, 2007, 2009).
- Armstrong enrolled at UVA in January 2018 and backed up Perkins the last two seasons, saving his redshirt season in 2018 under the NCAA participation rules.
- Armstrong is the 13th different UVA starting quarterback to start an opener in the last 16 seasons. The list includes: Bryce Perkins (2018-19), Kurt Benkert (2016-17), Matt Johns (2015), Greyson Lambert (2014), David Watford (2013), Michael Rocco (2011-12), Marc Verica (2010), Vic Hall (2009), Peter Lalich (2008), Jameel Sewell (2007), Christian Olsen (2006) and Marques Hagans (2005).

ARMSTRONG CONTINUES TO MATURE AS THE STARTING QB

- QB Brennan Armstrong threw for 200+ yards in each of his first two career starts, including 269 against Duke and 270 at No. 1 Clemson. He is only the second Cavalier to throw for 200+ passing yards in each of his first two career starts. Armstrong joins Matt Blundin, who did so in his first four career starts that spanned 1989, 1990 and 1991.
- With UVA trailing by three points (20-17) entering the fourth quarter in the season-opening win over Duke, Armstrong was 8-of-9 passing for 144 yards and two touchdowns. His lone incompletion was ruled a catch on the field by Davis Jr., but overturned on replay.
- Armstrong passed for 270 yards and three touchdowns at No. 1 Clemson, while also rushing for 89 more yards. Dating back to 2000, he is the only QB to pass for 225+ yards, pass for 3+ touchdowns and rush for 70+ yards in a game against the Tigers.
- With Armstrong under center, the UVA offense accumulated 417 yards of total offense at No. 1 Clemson. The Cavaliers became the first ACC team to earn 400+ yards of total offense against the Tigers since 2017 when NC State (Nov. 4) did so. Since the start of the 2019 season only LSU, Ohio State and Virginia (twice) have averaged 5.0+ yards per play against the Clemson defense.

UVA QUARTERBACKS IN THEIR FIRST-CAREER START

- QB Brennan Armstrong made his first collegiate start against Duke at Scott Stadium.
- Armstrong threw for 269 yards and two touchdowns against Duke, which is the second-most by a Cavalier starting quarterback making his first career start.
- Since 1955, 21 Virginia quarterbacks have passed for at least 150 yards in their first-career start. Here is a breakdown of the most passing yards by a Virginia QB in their first-ever start:

SCOTT STADIUM, HOME OF THE CAVALIERS

The Carl Smith Center, home of David A. Harrison III Field at Scott Stadium, with its unique architectural design, scenic setting on the University's Grounds and exceptional sight lines, is one of the nation's finest college football settings.

Opened in 1931, Scott Stadium might be one of the oldest campus college football stadiums in the nation, but you could never tell from its appearance. Numerous upgrades and expansions make it a modern home for the Cavaliers and their fans.

Scott Stadium was the gift of Frederic William Scott and Elisabeth Strother Scott, and was dedicated to the memory of his parents, Frederic Robert Scott and Frances Branch Scott.

Virginia played its dedication game at Scott Stadium on Oct. 15, 1931 against the Virginia Military Institute before a then-capacity crowd of 22,000. Prior to that season, the Cavaliers staged their home games at the University's Lambeth Field.

Virginia has played 479 games in the historic venue. UVA's all-time record at Scott Stadium stands at 273-194-12.

Bronco Mendenhall Head Coach • Fifth Season

Since arriving at Virginia for the 2016 season, head coach Bronco Mendenhall's impact on the Cavalier program has been immense. From a two-win season, to the ACC's Coastal Division Championship and a New Year's Six bowl invitation, Virginia football's ascent has both remarkable and historic.

Mendenhall came to Charlottesville after a highly successful 11-year career at BYU with a vision and a plan of execution for the daunting renovation project he faced. He has masterfully crafted principles and culture, and instilled pride and purpose, leading to a standard of unbroken growth in just four seasons.

Having a plan and being able to execute a strategic approach to achieving results have been mission critical to Mendenhall's formula for success.

"Teams and organizations are perfectly designed to get the results that they get,"

Mendenhall is fond of saying regarding both successes and failures. His pursuit of "unbroken growth" centers around learning, applying and improving on tools, frameworks, networks, innovation and processes that deliver those results. His ultimate goal is more expansive than building a great football organization. He strives to build great people.

On-field success is just part of the story Mendenhall has scripted at Virginia. He is a powerful believer in balance, which he frequently sums up with one simple word ... AND. It has become the calling card for the UVA football program.

"I think decisions are made based on principle, and I think principles are governed by beliefs," Mendenhall said. "AND is one of our guiding principles, and that is based on my belief that football is a vehicle to develop people."

At his introductory press conference, Mendenhall stressed that he wanted students AND athletes and believed that combination was achievable, especially at an institution such as Virginia that ranks among the top three public universities in the nation. Since that time, he has not compromised his approach to achieving those means. More importantly, his teams have bought in on the concepts with great enthusiasm and demonstrated they can do so while also being successful on the field.

"I would love to win a national championship," Mendenhall said. "I'd love to develop a great program here. But what I would really love is for every kid in my program to have an amazing life."

In the world of big-time football, Mendenhall's philosophy is unconventional, but that doesn't faze him.

"I'm looking for the complete development of everyone in our program – and winning," he said. "One is not at the expense of the other. I think they go hand-in-hand, and winning, without the other, would be hollow to me."

Under Mendenhall, the UVA program has progressed from two to six to eight to nine wins. Achievements and recognitions on the field, in the classroom and around the community have exponentially increased as well.

In 2019, UVA placed 10 players on the ACC All-Academic team, the most in the program's history. Linebacker

Jordan Mack was named the ACC's Jim Tatum Award winner as the league's top football scholar-athlete and was a finalist for the William B. Campbell Trophy, known in the sport as the "academic Heisman." Linebacker Micah Kiser, now a member of the Los Angeles Rams, won the award in 2017.

Giving back has become a cornerstone of Virginia football. Players frequently visit the University's Children's Medical Center and speak at local elementary schools. The team's Thursday's Heroes program has been recognized for its efforts to honor individuals across the state of Virginia who are dealing with personal adversity. In 2020, the ACC honored the Thursday's Heroes program with its "Game Changers" award, which recognizes and highlights specific conference teams' involvement with their local communities.

"I'm in pursuit, and we're in pursuit as a football program, of both of those things, and without compromising our expectations for one or the other," Mendenhall said. "I want good young people. I'm talking about morals, values, character, behavior and contribution to the world. And I want a great team. I know it sounds idealistic, but I would not coach football if I did not think it could be done, and I would not coach at Virginia if I did not think there was support for doing it that way."

Mendenhall's pursuit of individual growth is only magnified by the success his teams have also achieved on the field. His name appears often when the accolades of college football's leading active coaches are charted.

"To me, football is just a magical and powerful platform to have motivated learners, and I get to teach life lessons through the sport of football," Mendenhall said. "The trophies, the wins, they're necessary for job security and the world makes a big deal of that. But it is hollow without the substance. Relationships are everything. Other than that, it would just be a game, and that does not sound quite meaningful enough to me."

DID YOU KNOW?

- When offensive coordinator Robert Anae finished playing football, he returned home to Hawaii and served as the body model for the towering stature of the father of surfing, Duke Kahanamoku, a five-time Olympian.
- The statue, created by artist Jan Fisher, is right next to the famous Waikiki Beach. Anae was a graduate assistant at Hawaii at the time and the artist needed a model, a surfer that was tall, and he went looking for the tallest surfer on the North Shore.
- Head coach Bronco Mendenhall has at least one career win against all 10 of the current FBS conferences.
- Virginia sophomore defensive tackle Jowon Briggs plays 10 instruments and sings. Briggs can play the guitar, bass guitar, piano, violin, viola, cello, stand-up bass, saxophone, flute and clarinet. Briggs is part of the choir at UVA.
- WR Terrell Jana taught himself to play the piano by watching YouTube videos in his spare time at Woodberry Forest. He originally started to learn a song to surprise his mom and ended up enjoying it so much he kept up the self-study. The song Jana set out to learn to play for his mom was Brian McKnight's "Crazy Love."
- DL Samson Reed's father, Tanoai, played offensive line at Hawaii from 1991-94. Reed's dad, Tanoai, is the cousin of Dwayne "The Rock" Johnson and works as his Hollywood stunt double.
- Virginia has three players on its roster who are the sons of former Cavalier football players. Joey Blount (Tony Blount), Tucker Finkelston (Tim Finkelston) and Andrew Yavinsky (Marc Yavinsky).
- WR Jalen Harrison came to Virginia to play baseball and was part of the 2017 and 2018 squads, appearing in 25 career games. The outfielder's first career hit was a home run against La Salle.
- S Vinnie Vlado's father, Larry Vlado, was college football teammates at Oregon State with UVA head coach Bronco Mendenhall in 1986 and 1987.
- PK Justin Duenkel's aunt, Virginia Duenkel, won Olympic gold in the 400 freestyle and the bronze in the 400 backstroke at the 1964 Olympics in Tokyo.
- OL Zachary Teter is the son of Doug Teter, the head athletic trainer for the Detroit Tigers.
