LAST TIME OUT: The Hawks defended their home turf against Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference foe Marist College, 70-59. After trailing through eight minutes, UMES embarked on a 22-4 run over the next eight, leading 34-19 with a handful of minutes left in the first. The Hawks went on to lead 38-31 at the break after a Marist run, but came out of the intermission firing with a 9-1 stretch. After the Red Foxes built a short run of their own courtesy of four free throws, threes from Kohen Thompson and Da'Shawn Phillip swung the pendulum back in favor of the hosts. The offense kept Marist at bay, in large part due to a career-high 20 points from Nathaniel Pollard Jr. Phillip ended the night with 15 points, four boards, two assists, a block and a steal. Point man Ahamadou Fofana tallied seven points with four assists and four steals as well. The Hawks outrebounded a bigger Marist team 40-32 in the win.

HAWK SPOTLIGHT: After a slower start to the season, Nathaniel Pollard, Jr. has found his rhythm among the UMES starting five. In back-to-back contests, Pollard has posted career-highs in rebounds (15) and points (20), respectively. Pollard hauled in 15 boards on the road against George Washington, and posted his first 20-point effort in the maroon and grey at home against Marist on November 22. Pollard also hauled in eight rebounds against Marist on Tuesday, all eight of which were offensive rebounds on the way to the Hawks scoring 21 second-chance points.

RUNNING IT BACK: Ten new players joined the Hawks for the 2021-22 season, a year that saw just two returners from the '19-20 campaign. Adversely, the team returns eight players this season including four starters from last year's squad. Forward Nathaniel Pollard, Jr. proved to be a pivotal piece of that group last season, averaging a team-high 6.6 boards while logging just under nine points-per-game. The team is headlined by senior guard Da'Shawn Phillip, one of three current Hawks who played for the '19-20 team. Phillip led the group in minutes last season, finishing fourth on the team in scoring (9.1) and second in rebounding (4.6).

FEEDING THE PIPELINE: Head coach Jason Crafton is a native New Yorker. The '22-23 Hawks roster contains six players from New York, more than any other state and a higher total than Maryland and Virginia combined (5). Guards Zion Styles and Donchevell "Tuka" Nugent are from Uniondale and Newburgh respectively, while point guard Glen "Jojo" Anderson is from Harlem. Three newcomers come from the Empire State as well. Sophomore forward Troy Hupstead is from Mount Vernon, while graduate guard Ahamadou Fofana and freshman guard Dionte Johnson hail from the Bronx.

2021-22 Record: 21-14 (12-8 ACC)All-Time Series: Virginia leads 1-0

SCOUTING THE CAVALIERS: Entering the matchup as the fifth-ranked team in the AP Top 25 poll, the Cavaliers have gotten off to a 4-0 start to the 2022-23 campaign. Virginia has logged wins over #5 Baylor and #19 Illinois already, both coming in the Continental Tire Main Event. Senior guard Armaan Franklin has led the way for Virginia so far, averaging 16 points and four rebounds per contest. Reece Beekman, junior guard, ranks second with 11 points per contest and a team-high 24 assists through four games. Red-shirt junior forward Kadin Shedrick slots third with a 10.8 PPG average and a team-high 5.8 boards per game.

LAST MEETING (December 27, 2011): The Hawks' lone showdown with the Cavaliers of Virginia came on December 27, 2011, a matchup that Virginia also hosted and claimed 69-42. The Cavaliers entered that contest ranked 23rd in the nation, and opened the game on a 9-0 run before UMES found the basket. Hillary Haley led the Hawks with 11 points and was the only Hawk in double-figures. Haley nailed a critical three-pointer with 5:35 left in the first half to snap a Cavalier run and cut the lead to eight.

STEERING THE SHIP: Three-time National Coach of the Year Tony Bennett enters his 14th year at the helm of the University of Virginia men's basketball program. Bennett arrived in Charlottesville in 2009 after spending the prior three seasons at Washington State. Last season, the Cavaliers posted a 21-14 record and earned a berth in the NIT quarterfinals, a year after earning the 10th ACC regular-season title in program history. Bennett is one of three coaches in ACC history (Dean Smith, Mike Krzyzewski) to lead his program to 10-straight winning conference seasons.

Head Coach Jason Crafton

Hometown: Brooklyn, N.Y.
College: Nyack College '03
4th season at UMES (18-46)
10th as collegiate head coach (65-154)

Jason Crafton was announced as the head coach of the University of Maryland Eastern Shore men's basketball team on April 24, 2019. The 19-year-veteran of coaching spent the 2018-29 season in the NBA ranks as an assistant coach with the Philadelphia 76ers' G-League affiliate Delaware Blue Coats. Prior to that, he was the head coach at his alma mater, Nyack College from 2012-18. He spent the beginning of his career as an assistant at the United States Naval Academy and Villanova University.

In the Spring of 2012, Crafton inherited a major rebuilding project, taking over a Warrior program which produced a 1-26 record the year prior to his arrival and was ranked 276 out of 277 NCAA Division II programs. In his second season, he propelled the Warriors one of the best turnarounds in the Central Atlantic Collegiate Conference (CACC).

By the 2015-16 season the Warriors 11-15 record marked as the programs best since 2009. The Warriors also achieved 22 conference wins between 2013-2016, it's best 3-year span in several years.

Throughout his tenure, the Warriors made a name for themselves on defense. In 2016, Nyack ranked 11th in the nation in turnovers forced per game. The 2015 squad led the league in steals per game while the 2018 team finished with a zone defense that was rated in the top 10 percent nationally by Synergy.

Prior to Nyack, Crafton was Associate head coach at the U.S. Naval Academy for two seasons under then head coach Billy Lange. Before that, he was an assistant coach for the Midshipmen from 2005 to 2010 also under Lange who is now the St. Joseph's University head coach.

He began his college coaching career as video coordinator for two seasons at Villanova under head coach Jay Wright (2003-05). While working at Villanova, he helped mentor two future NBA guards: All-Star Kyle Lowry and Randy Foye.

While at Navy, Crafton was instrumental in developing Greg Sprink (2008 Patriot League Player of the Year) and J.J. Avila (2011 Patriot League Rookie of the Year). At Nyack, he spearheaded the development of Nick Moore and Chris Hampton, who both earned CACC All-Conference accolades..

In 2018, Crafton worked with the Blue Coats to help instill similar philosophies as the parent club, the 76ers, while also maintaining a developmental mindset. The energetic coach played an integral role and took every opportunity to contribute in all phases of the program as well as use the experience to broaden his coaching knowledge, at different times throughout the season serving as Offensive and Defensive Coordinator as well as Director of Player Development. He assisted with the on-court development of multiple players who became contributors to the 76ers including 2018 first-round pick Zhaire Smith.

The former Warrior was a member of the Nyack College basketball team from 1999-2003 and served as team captain during his junior and senior seasons. He graduated with a Bachelor of Science in Communications in 2003.
