Louisville has eight newcomers among its 14 scholarship players. The group includes six transfers, including two from junior colleges, and two freshmen.

■ Pegues Interim Coach — Mike Pegues (pronounced puh-GEESE) is serving as the Cardinals' interim head coach for the remainder of the 2021-22 season after the mutual parting on Jan. 26 with Chris Mack, who had guided the Cardinals for three and a half seasons. Pegues is in his fourth year at UofL after working six seasons at Xavier (2012-18). Before his time at Xavier, Pegues spent two seasons as an assistant coach at his alma mater, the University of Delaware. Pegues had a stellar collegiate career at Delaware, where he earned a degree in communications in 2000. The all-time leading scorer in Delaware men's basketball history with 2,030 points, Pegues led the Blue Hens to two NCAA Tournament appearances while playing under former UD head coach and current Notre Dame head coach Mike Brey from 1996-2000.   A native of Washington, D.C., Pegues played professionally in Italy, New Zealand, England and Argentina, as well as one season in the Continental Basketball Association. ■ Card Clips — Louisville has held 12 of its 29 opponents under 43 percent from the field this season and seven under 40 percent. However, 15 of UofL's last 16 foes have exceeded that mark, with four over 50 percent against the Cardinals (latest: Wake Forest .582 on Feb. 26). Louisville is ninth in the ACC and 191st nationally in field goal percentage defense (.434) ... Jarrod West is fourth in the ACC in assists-turnovers ratio (2.49), 21st in steals (1.3) and 20th in assists (3.0). ■ Rebounding a Key — Louisville is 10-3 this year when winning the rebounding battle, but have been outrebounded in 10 of the last 14 games. The Cardinals rank 66th in the NCAA in defensive rebounding (26.8 rpg) and 107th in total rebounds per game (36.7) through March 1. The Cards grabbed 12 offensive rebounds at Wake Forest, their 14th time this season with at least 10 on the offensive glass. UofL had a season-high 17 offensive rebounds vs. Maryland.

Louisville dominated the glass in its two games in the Bahamas, claiming a 47-38 rebounding advantage vs. Mississippi State before outrebounding Maryland 51-25. The plus-26 rebounding margin against Maryland is the largest for the Cardinals since finishing plus-28 against Evansville on Nov. 25, 2020. The margin is the largest for UofL away from home since plus-30 against Northeastern on Nov. 28, 1986. It was the largest rebounding advantage against a current Power Five program since a plus-29 vs. Virginia Tech on Feb. 6, 1986. Louisville held a decisive 46-30 rebounding advantage over NC State in its first ACC outing and a 32-28 edge against the Wolfpack on Jan. 12.

■ Tornado Relief Efforts -- While there are multiple ways to support relief efforts across Kentucky from the devastation from December tornados, below is a fund in which individuals can provide financial donations that can directly help residents specifically in the Bowling Green area, where the Cardinals played on Dec. 18. Warren County Public Schools Synergy Relief Fund link: https://uofl.me/3IO55pM, or text "BGSTRONG" to 83200.UofL transported hundreds of toys to Bowling Green in advance of its game at Western Kentucky on Dec. 18. The toys, unloaded by the Cardinal team, were donated by UofL fans at home men's and women's games, plus by the UofL athletics staff. The toy drives also supported local Louisville organizations Home of the Innocents and Nortons Children's Hospital.

■ Davis, King Sign with Louisville Basketball -- D'Ante "Tae" Davis, 6-6, 175-pound guard from Warren Central High School in Indianapolis, Ind.; and Fredrick King, a 6-10, 220-pound center from Mangrove Cay, Andros, in the Bahamas; have each signed a national letter-of-intent to continue their basketball playing careers at the University of Louisville.

Davis averaged 13.5 points and 6.2 rebounds per game as a junior last season in helping Warren Central post a 19-7 record before falling to 4A state finalist Lawrence North by a point in the sectional semifinals. The younger brother of current UofL sophomore guard/forward Dre Davis, Tae is ranked among the nation's top 150 players, including No. 139 by Rivals.com and No. 147 by 247Sports. com. He was an AP high honorable mention all-state selection as a junior in 2020-21, an All-Metropolitan Interscholastic Conference honoree and was named to the Indiana Basketball Coaches Association Underclass All-State Supreme 15.

Davis had transferred to Warren Central for the 2020-21 season after his father, D'Andre Davis Sr., became the school's head coach after previously serving six seasons as an assistant coach at Lawrence Central. As a sophomore at Lawrence Central, Tae averaged 10.9 points and 4.7 rebounds per game in 2019-20.

Many collegiate programs became aware of King when he joined the NBA Academy, where he averaged 23 points and 12 rebounds to lead his NBA Academy Latin America team to a 3-0 record at the NBA Academy Games in San Luis Potosi, Mexico in September.

In his top two games in the NBA Academy International event, King scored 31 points and grabbed 16 rebounds in an 82-61 win over NBA Africa Red, and totaled 29 points and 13 rebounds in a 93-87 victory over The Skills Factory. Gibson team was the GSSSA runner-up last season.

■ Mack Was Out for First Six — Chris Mack, who mutually departed from UofL on Jan. 26, served a university-imposed suspension for six games from Nov. 8 through Nov. 27. The University concluded that while Mack was a victim of an extortion attempt by former assistant coach Dino Gaudio, Mack failed to follow University guidelines, policies, and procedures in handling the matter. The sanctions imposed upon Coach Mack were unrelated to the extortion attempt itself and the ongoing NCAA process. During the suspension, Mack was prohibited from having contact with the men's basketball coaching staff or student-athletes. Mike Pegues, the Cardinals' current interim head coach, served as acting head coach during Mack's suspension and led Louisville to a 5-1 record and the Baha Mar Hoops Bahamas Championship. Pegues was the coach of record for those first six games and now has a 6-8 record as a head coach.

■ Louisville Retired Russ Smith's Number 2 Jersey -- The University of Louisville retired men's basketball All-America guard Russ Smith's No. 2 jersey number in a halftime ceremony of the Cardinals' Jan. 22 game against Notre Dame in the KFC Yum! Center. Smith's No. 2 is the fifth number retired in the Louisville men's basketball program, joining No. 8 Charlie Tyra (1953-57 at UofL), No. 31 Wes Unseld (1965-68), No. 35 Darrell Griffith (1979-80) and No. 42 Pervis Ellison (1985-89). The number two will no longer be worn by a UofL player.

Nicknamed "Russdiculous," Smith is the only Louisville player in history with at least 1,800 career points, 350 assists and 250 steals. He is the Cardinals' all-time leader in steals with 257, is fifth in career scoring at Louisville with 1,908 points, second in career free throws made with 488, and is tied for ninth in career three-pointers with 180.

A 6-0 guard from Brooklyn, N.Y., Smith was a part of the second-most successful four-year period in the Cardinals' storied basketball history, helping Louisville win 121 games from 2010-14 (121-31, .796). He helped the Cardinals reach two NCAA Final Fours, two Big East Tournament Championships and one with the American Athletic Conference, two regular season co-conference titles (one Big East, one American), three straight NCAA Sweet 16 appearances and the 2013 national title (later vacated).

Following his collegiate career, Smith was selected by the Philadelphia 76ers in the second round of the 2014 NBA Draft with the 47th overall pick, and was subsequently traded to the New Orleans Pelicans. ■ Cards Finished Seventh in ACC — After missing seven conference games due to COVID-19 issues of its own or its opponent, Louisville posted an 8-5 record in its seventh season in the Atlantic Coast Conference. Virginia won the ACC regular season championship. Louisville has won at least eight league games for 15 straight seasons. The Cardinals have finished in the top three in its conference nine of the last 17 years. UofL finished in a tie for second in 2019-20 (15-5 ACC record), sixth in 2018-19, a tie for eighth in 2017-18, was tied for second in 2016-17, and was fourth in its first two years in the ACC in posting identical 12-6 records in each of its first three years in the ACC.

Louisville's 15-5 ACC record in 2019-20 was its best in its six years in the conference and its first time to win more than 12 ACC games. It was the most wins in any conference since UofL won the 2013-14 American Athletic Conference title with a 15-3 conference record. Last year was the first time for a 20-game ACC schedule.

Louisville ACC Record
First 3 Yrs.	Next 3 Yrs.

The Cardinals' have won 22 regular season conference championships (regular season conference championships: American 1, Big East 2, Conference USA 1, Metro 12, Missouri Valley 6; two later vacated). Louisville has won its conference championship or finished second in 28 of the last 46 years, including seven of the last 17 years. In conference tournaments, Louisville has a composite 83-45 record, winning 19 tournament championships (1 American, 3 Big East, 2 C-USA, 11 Metro, 2 KIAC; three later vacated). In its last league title, UofL claimed the inaugural 2014 American Athletic Conference Championship, beating eventual national champion UConn in the title game (later vacated).

■ Cards Have Rare 20-Win Streak — Louisville is one of four Division I schools in the nation which have won 20 or more games in at least 18 of each of the past 19 seasons. The Cardinals only played 20 games in 2020-21. The four with 20 wins in at least 18 of the last 19 years are Kansas (32 straight), Duke (24 of last 25), Gonzaga (23 straight) and Louisville (18 of last 19). Kansas and Gonzaga reached the 20-win mark in the event-shortened 2020-21 season. UofL has won at least 19 games in 46 of the last 51 years. However, the NCAA Committee on Infractions' vacation of 123 victories in four of those years (2011-15) negates the official results.

■ Grad Transfer Success — Entering this year, a graduate transfer has started in the Louisville backcourt in each of the last three seasons and four of the last six. On four occasions in the last six years, a graduate transfer guard has either led or been among the top two scorers for the Cardinals. The latest last season was Carlik Jones in 2020-21, leading UofL in scoring (16.8) and assists (4.5). This year, graduate transfer Jarrod West from Marshall has started 21 games and leads the Cardinals with 87 assists and 37 steals. Graduate transfer Mason Faulkner started six games.

KFC Yum! CENTER

179-35 record in 12 years

■ 12th Season in KFC Yum! Center -- UofL is playing its 12th season in 2021-22 in the spectacular KFC Yum! Center, located on the banks of the Ohio River in downtown Louisville. The 22,090-seat multi-purpose arena was built at a cost of $238 million and includes 71 luxury suites, 62 four- or six-seat premium boxes, over 2,000 side-court club seats and four party suites with a seating capacity of 32 each.

UofL's men's and women's teams have permanent locker rooms. There are five additional team locker rooms, two officials locker rooms, five star dressing rooms, a full-function media work room and a full-sized basketball practice court on the event level. The seven levels of the arena (including the upper catwalk) include a collective 721,762 square feet, or roughly the area of 13 football fields.

After passing through the one and a half acre landscaped entry plaza that features a basketball-themed fountain, entering fans can visit the 2,500-square foot UofL adidas store or head to their seats using one of the eight escalators or seven elevators within the building.

Lounge space is abundant within the arena. Four spacious donor rooms are available for Cardinal fans, including three that overlook the Ohio River. The 7,000-square foot main concourse restaurant overlooks the river and a main concourse sports bar has views directly into the arena bowl. Two 4,000-square foot club lounges on the event level, as well as the terrace club and premium box lounges, provide amenities for their respective patrons. The KFC Yum! Center served as the site for the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament second and third rounds in 2012 and 2015, the NCAA South Regional in 2016 and 2019 and was the site for the 2012 NCAA Women's Volleyball Championship. A 2023 NCAA men's basketball regional will be staged in the KFC Yum! Center.
